

PROPERTY

A Dozen and a Half Do's and Don'ts

- D—amaged books must be paid for by pupil;
- O—n your lunch table leave no crumbs or paper;
- N—ever put initials or names or marks on furniture;
- T—he name of the pupil should be in each book or notebook;
- D—on't throw paper on the floors; hallways or on the grounds outside;
- A—ccidents occur, but property damage is to be reported to the offices;
- M—ake the care of all school buildings and grounds your responsibility;
- A—lways put all your dishes on the moving belt;
- G—et into the habit of using the receptacles designated for paper;
- E—very pupil should respect the lawns and terraces of our neighbors;
- P—lease don't stuff papers in your desks or lockers;
- R—efrain from giving the combinations of your locker to anyone;
- O—mit throwing stones or snowballs — they break windows;
- P—lease refrain from putting marks on the walls;
- E—rase all pencil marks in your books;
- R—emember to lock your locker;
- T—ry to keep on the paths and off the grass;
- Y—our help is requested in each of the above cases.