

Isabell J. Lamb Garvin

Isabell J. Garvin, known affectionately to many as "Is" or "Izzy" died on December 7, 2019. She was 73.

Isabell was the loving wife of the late Richard Garvin.

Born in Philadelphia, Isabell was the daughter of the late Al and Isabell Winklemann Witchko .

Isabell spent much of her life in Cheltenham and Doylestown before eventually moving to Florida and most recently returning to Millsboro, Delaware where she was residing since 2018. She was most recently semi-retired from her long career in Medical Billing and Transcription, having still been working part-time.

For Isabell, the beach was always a central component of her life and she enjoyed the peace and tranquility of the ocean. Growing up she spent her summers in Ocean City, NJ with her family and would make sure in her later years to never be too far away from the water and enjoyed countless vacations to the Caribbean. Most of all, Izzy was a good friend who enjoyed the simple things in life, most importantly time spent with family and friends. She will be dearly missed.

Isabell is survived by her children, Holly Kukura of North Brunswick, NJ and Brian Hoefermann and his wife Ellen of Warminster, PA; and her three grandchildren. She also leaves behind her sisters, Ruth Anne McCreesh and her husband John and Linda Young and her husband Gary.

Relatives and friends are invited to greet the family on Saturday, January 25th, 2020 from 1:00 PM until her Memorial Service at 2:00 PM at the Joseph A. Fluehr III Funeral Home, 241 E. Butler Ave. (at Sandy Ridge Rd.), New Britain, PA 18901. Her interment will be private.
